

Bingo won many one newspaper brought a new warrant for the arrest of Marilyn Monroe today because he could not understand why she was well enough to ride a circus elephant but too ill to appear in court in answer to a traffic citation. Municipal Judge Charles J. Gaff im refused to grant another continuance for the film star to appear after charges of driving without LAWRENCE SWETZ COLLECTION.

Marilyn

7/31/57

Hall of New York stayed up to watch the 1900 thistelle from the Seven Year Itch.

7/31/57

At the same time, the Beverly Hills judge forfeited a $100 bond put up for the actress.

The judge set Miss Monroe's trial date for May 31, and fixed her new bail at $200,000, as well as assessing her $100 for failure to appear today. Her trial had been delayed before on claim she was too ill in New York to come here.

LESTER SWETZ COLLECTION

7/31/57
Marilyn Monroe

7/31/57

The special elevator installed to hold the globe of granite was turned on. Some visitors say these photos didn't help Marilyn's morale.

LESTER SWETZ COLLECTION

7/31/57
Marilyn Monroe

7/31/57